8 May 1950

TO: Chief, STB

FROM: Chief Instructor, SOC

1. In accordance with your directive, outlines have been prepared on practically all lectures presented in the SOC. A copy of each outline is forwarded herewith with the exception of the following which are now in the typing stage: Intelligence and National Security, Mission of CIA, Message Writing, Economic Information, and Pitfalls of Security. It is expected that these can be forwarded within a few days.

2. Concerning your request for complete transcriptions of lectures given in the SOC, we have postponed this project until the outlines were finished. Instructors have been asked to prepare these transcriptions. No definite date can be assigned for the completion of this project which will depend on the clerical personnel available.
